

NE of the topics of the day in the athletic world is the reception which Sullivan got in London. Every one wishes the "big fel low" all possible luck, but it is the general opinion that a tre mendous reception does not necessarily / ensure him an immense exhibition. One of the biggest demonstrations John L. had on his last trip in this country was the one at Altoona, Pa. The ex-champion arrived just in time to go to spar at the Opera-House, The depot was crowded as it was never before. The streets were impassable for blocks. A man could have walked on the shoulders of the massed assemblage, and the Boston pugilist and his combination had to go to the theatre by a back way. But the box-office didn't demonstrate anything like as well as it did in Balti-more and Washington.

"Much," says a Hoffman House frequenter," of the success of Billy Madden's new play, 'Around New York,' will depend on the pugliistic partner he has." Another gentleman replied: "Madden is pretty cute. I wonder if it wouldn't be a good scheme to evade the laws against boxing some cities have. With a partner like Jack Dempsey or some promising heavyweight, the play ought to run as a sparring attraction."

Little Billy Burke, the featherweight, is in rough luck so far as a trainer is concerned. This trainer said to a friend the other day: "I had awful hard work getting 'Billy' down for the featherweight competitors of the Pastimes at Parepa Hall. He was four pounds too heavy the morning of the day he was to box, so I put him in a Turkish bath. It only took a pound and a half off; so I slapped him in again and got off another pound and a half. By this time it was 6 o'clock in the evening, and the boxing was to begin soon after 8 o'clock. I didn't give up though, Burke, of course, couldn't be allowed to eat anything when still a pound and a half too heavy, and I wouldn't a pound and a half too heavy, and I wouldn't give it up. I put a big overcoat on him and made him run in the slush from Broome street to Eighty-sixth street behind a Third avenue car, while I stood on the back of the platform. This took off another pound and a half and left him just a half pound inside a half and left him just a hair pound inside the limit. Then as we were going on to spar a protest was made against him as a profes-sional and he was ruled out." McDonald, Burke's trainer, fought five glove contests out in Cleveland recently and got whipped six times. The odd time was in a saloon one day when an ignorant Westerner made a mis-take as to the Eastern pugllist's identity and thrashed him before he discovered his error.

The final deposit of $500 a side in the Reagan-Dempsey prize-fight for $1,000 a side will be due on Friday. A referee will also have to be chosen. It is likely that Frank Stevenson will be selected.

Mike Cleary is in town and expects to accept a week's engagement at the Hoboken Casino, Warren Lewis having made up his mind to try boxing again and have the contests come off in time to allow the New Yorkers to get home before daybreak. Cleary is looking well and says he made money teaching boxing in Lonisville, Ky. When asked his plans, he said: "Oh, I'll meet Clow after he gets through with Glover and probably Killen; each on his own terms."

It is said that Mr. Oddy will not have things all his own way at the next billiard tournament of the Racquet Club. Dr. Jen-nings and others are playing in great form lately.

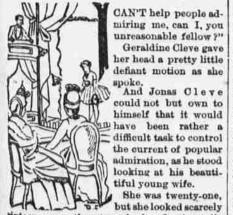

Mike Donavan says he is sure to capture Mike Donavan says he is sure to capture the anateur heavyweight sparring championship this year with W. J. Barry. Barry who stands 6 feet 4 inches in his socks, is becoming remarkably proficient, and can hit as becomes a champion hammer-thrower. He is surprisingly quick, too. Donovan is going over to England and Ireland with Barry next May, and will take Johnny Reagan with him, win or lose in the coming battle with Dempsey.

Manning and Power, the pool-players, are harry to be matched again. Al Saurs says he will back Manning again for all the money the Power people will put up.

The New York Athletic Club's cross-coun The New York Athletic Club's cross-country championship run yesterday establishes a record, as the distance was five miles up and down hill and across ploughed fields. The astonishing thing about it was that all of the eight starters finished the distance and no one was what might be called very badly beaten, G. Y. Gilbert finishing second, instead of Skillman, was the surprise to the knowing ones.

RIEER'S SACHET POWDERS are finer, stronger an more lasting than Lubin's, Athinson's, Coudray's or, in fact, any sachet powder in the market. This is guaranteed by Rikers, 353 Sixth avenue. Heliotrope, violet, lookey club, white rose, munk, de. Always get RIKER's, and you are sure of perfect satisfaction.

ON THE BRINK OF DESPAIR.

CAN'T help people admiring me, can I, you unreasonable fellow?

an have been rather a difficult task to control the current of popular admiration, as he stood tiful young wife.

She was twenty-one,
but she looked scarcely sixteen upon the stage, in her floating tulle dress, with slender bends of gold round her tiny ankels, and rose garlands dangling from her hair. For Mrs. Cleve was neither more nor less than a dancer at the Shakespeare Theatre.

The elegant leader of society may elevate her aristocratic nose at the slender shawled agure entering the stage-door, as her glittering carriage rolls by, but we question if the truer and more tender heart be not oftener found beneath the shabby stage fineries than ander the velvet and ermine.

Geraldine had earned her own and her parents' living by the light evolutions of her lary foot, ever since she was ten years old; is good, and true, and noble-hearted a young

THE DRIFT OF SOCIETY.

The marriage of Mr. Frederick W. Goodenow jr. , and Miss May Bennett will take place this even ing at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. H. Bennett, 161 East One Hundred and Fifteent on the occasion of her daughter's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Burbank Roberts, who were re-ternoon, and also on next Thursday afternoon at

Mrs. Heywood Cutting and Miss Cutting, who have been visiting Mrs. R. Redmond, will sail on Saturday for Europe.

The marriage of Mr. Wm. Butterfield and Miss

Du Vernet took place this forenoon at Saybrook,

Saugerties; Dean Dougherty and Rev. G. A. Healy, bridesmald. Among those present were Samuel

E. Duffy, Charles F. Lynch, James A. Dalrymple,

George P. Morgan, M. T. Mannion, Mr. and Mrs.

Augustine Healy, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cavanagh,

Mr. and Mrs. William A. McKenns, Philip A. Smyth and the Misses Barrett, of New York, and

Mr. and Mrs. M. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. D. Donovan, Misses Donovan, T. J. Tindale, Misse

A DOLLAR DINNER FOR POUR

Contributed Daily to "The Evening World? by the Steward of the Aster House.

At to-day's market prices the material for this

Sour. Chicken With Rice.

Fish.

Boiled Salmon Trout, Hollandaise Sauce

ROAST. Beef.

Potato, Cauliflower,

DESSERT. Cabinet Pudding.

Apple. Grapes. Coffee.

Daintles of the Market.

A Mistake. [From the Duluth Paragraph.]
Mr. DeSnuff to Landlady-What is this syrup

Landlady-Of swate coffee sugar, sor. DeSnuff-Excuse me, I thought it was Maid of

[Prom the Mittaburg Post.]
The title of Henry James's last story is the "Aspen Papers." Like the rest of his works, however, it is no great shakes.

"Many Called But Few Chosen."

There are a great many brands of cigarettes in the maket, but our "Sweet Caronal" still retain their, st premacy. KINNEY TOBACCO CO., New York. *

ALL first-class druggists sell Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsan at 55c. ; trial size, 10c.

creature as ever bounded before the footlights.

And now that she was married to the young

And now that she was married to the young lawyer's clerk downtown, she still remained on the stage, contrary to his most earnest entreaties and expostulations.

"Just a year or two longer, Jonas dear." she said, "until we save money enough to buy us a little cottage somewhere in the suburbs and furnish it as we want."

And Jonas Cleve yielded to her pretty coaxing solicitations, although it was against his own better judgment.

But it was not pleasing to go, night after night, only to see other men staring at his night, only to see other men staring at his wife, and listen, unwillingly enough, to their comments, and Jonas Cleve had been gradu-ally growing dissatisfied with this arrangement.

was his exclamation one evening, as he walked home with her from the theatre, her bright-spangled robes all covered beneath a sober black alpaca skirt and a waterproof cloak. "What made you take the bouquet that that puppy Middleworth tossed on the stage ?"

"Why shouldn't I?" demanded Geraldine

"He has thrown you a bouquet every evening for a week."

"Well, what then?" laughed Geraldine.
"I like flowers, and I can't afford to buy them myself."
"But, Geraldine"—
"But, Geraldine that the little danseuse

And then it was that the little danseuse stopped in the light of a gas-lamp which they happened to be passing, and made the saucy little speech which is chronicled at the bedemurely.

Uranberries 10c. quart. Horsersdish, 10c. root. Sweet potatoes, 20c. half-peck. Lima beans, 20c, quart. Egg plants, 10c. Oyster plant, 10c. a bunci

Hutton, William Hutton, Misses Hussey, brook, Dimond and Fitzgeraid, G. De Witt N.

Brodhead and others, of Kingston.

dinner can be purchased for $1.

English snipe, $8 des Pierer, $3 doz. Rail, $1.50 doz. Rabits, 25c. aplece, Venison, 20c. to 25c. Woodcock, $1 pair. Fresh mackerel, 15c. Sea bass, 15c. to 20c. Cod, 8c.

made of, Mrs. McKitchen?

their new home, 51 East Twenty-eighth street.

cently married, will receive their friends this afin honor of her daughter's marriage.

cotte are visiting Boston.

for several weeks.

Prof. Edward C. Pickering, of the Harvard Co. ege Observatory, will deliver a lecture to the Invitation to a Late Supper Which was National Academy of Science at Mrs. Draper's house, 271 Madison avenue, this afternoon. Indefinitely Postponed -- Mrs. Langtry's Receipts This Senson-Minute Palmer's Play Not an Old One Under a New Name The engagement of Vicomite de Lanzey and Miss Suzague Bancroff, granddaughter of the historian, -Plans for Theatrical Campulans. s off. The marriage was to have taken place in extremely photographed young lady, who is said to receive a salary from a photographer in this city in return for the ex--clusive right of selling her valuable pictures, had an amusing adventure the other day in Washington, where she or unfortunate enough to attract the attention of an elderly gentleman who, from his frequent visits to the theatre, showed symptoms of being infatuated with the young woman. He sent her the inevitable "floral offerings," occupied a private box on several occasions, and finally secured an introduction to Miss Archer, who was not particularly charmed to make his acquaintance. The actress, however, is a thorough Bohemian-

MISS BELLE ARCHER'S ADVENTURE WITH

AN ELDERLY ADMIRER.

Coun.

The marriage of Mr. E. L. Short and Miss Anna
L. Petit will take place to-morrow afternoon at
S. 30 o'clock in Zion church.

Mrs. R. Hawkins, of Sl. West Twentieth street, will receive on Fridays during the winter.
Miss Anna J. Noone, daughter of Mr. Luke
Noone, was married at the Church of St. Joseph,
Kingston-on-the-Hudson, this morning to Mr. Edward H. Tindale, of this city. The mass was celchrated and the ceremony performed by the Rev.
Dr. Duffy, of Roudont. Among the clergymen in the sanculary were the Rev. Dr. Curran, of Saugerties; Dean Dougherty and Rev. G. A. Healy,

Miss Archer looked at the carriage and her face clouded with disappointment.

Saugertles; Dean Dougherty and Rev. G. A. Healy, of New York, James V. Lynch, of New York, acted as best man and Miss Mary E. Pitzgeralu as bridesmald. Among those present were Samuel "Plenty," he remarked. "We're not giants." How about the rest of us?" she asked plaintively.

"The rest? What do you mean?"
"Why, my dear friend, I very often take supper after the performance, but never without the entire company. You'd better call a few more carriages."

Miss Archer turned away to hide her smiles. When she veered around again her dmirer was gone.

Mrs. Langtry intends to play at the Grand Mrs. Langtry intends to play at the Grand Opera-House this season after her appear-ance at the Theatre Comique, Harlem. This fact probably means that she will be seen again in a Broadway Theatre for a season or two. She is at present in Canada, doing an enormous business. In fact, her receipts this season are said to have been phenomenal up to the present up to the present.

It was asserted last Saturday with considerable strength that Miss Minnie Palmer's play, "My Brother's Sister," which she is to produce shortly, was not a new play, but was purchased by the young woman in San Francisco last summer, where it was known as "Pert," As a matter of fact, "My Brother's Sister" was written by Leonard Grover last year to order for Margaret Fish. Kit Clarke, the young woman's manager, gave the order. For some reason—probably that the part did not suit Miss Fish—the play was never produced, although money was paid to never produced, although money was paid to Leonard Grover. The play reverted to him, and now Miss Palmer has it.

Manager Henry E. Abbey intends to surround Miss Marlowe when she appears at the Star Theatre in December, with a very strong cast. He is evidently anxious to assist native talent.

Prime rib reast, 18 to 20c.
Porterbouse steak, 25c.
Sirioin steak, 18 to 20c.
Leg motton, 16c.
Lamb chops, 25c. to 28c.
Leg west to 28c.
Leg vest, 20c.
English mutton chop, 25c.
Lamb hindy'ters, 14 to 16c.
Veal cutlets, 28c.
Sweetbreads, 85 per dozen.
Calvas heads, 54c. to 60c.
Borring culcken, 21 to 21c.
Boast chicken, 14 to 22c.
Roast chicken, 14 to 22c.
Boast chicken, 14 to 22c.
Boast chicken, 14 to 22c.
Boast chicken, 14 to 22c.
Cauvashes, 35 50 to 34.
Catoria, 25c.
Cauvashes, 35.
Catoria, 25c.
Cauvashes, 35c.
Catoria, 35c. George Knight will be his own manager after his season at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, which closes in a fortnight. He is now engaged in forming his company for the road—that is to say, making a few changes.

The Lycsum Theatre management have "lent" pretty little Elsie Leslie to Mr. Abbey. She is to appear in the coming production of "School" at Wallack's.

Nat Goodwin is playing in Western cities to marvellously large receipts in "Turned Up." which was by no means successful here. The opens on Wednesday night in Philadelphia.

Warned in Plain Language. [From the Louisville Courier-Journal.]
The hunting season has opened, and farmers are outling out signs on forbidden ground. Some signs are in strong English and some are hard to understand. One northwest of the city reads as follows:

"Any person ketched on these grounds, or cows or wimin will be liabul two fine itself into a skrape."

Could Not Stand the Water. (From the Moscow (Idaho) Mirror.]

Judge Buck, at Murray, the other day ordered jury to be fed on bread, meat and water until they could decide on their verdict. The foreman sent in word that the bread and meat was correct, but the water, the jury thought, was an unwarrante

A Waste of Good Material. [From the Baston Courier.]
Their chaste salutes are not misplaced
When women kiss a friend or brother;
But of iffe's honey what a waste
There is when women kiss cach other.

must not receive the miscellaneous homage of every brainless for like young Middle worth!"

"That is nonsense, Jonas."
"Is it?" His brows contraction. "That is nonsense, Jonas."
"Is it?" His brows contracted until they seemed to form a black line across his forehead. "I chose to think otherwise. You must accept no more flowers from that young man. I like to see the bouquets rain down around you, as a tribute to your skill and merits, but when it comes to a regular offering, night after night, from some one person, and he a profligate scamp, whose admiration is a honor to no woman".

"Jonas!"

Jonas! "I am only speaking the truth, Geraldine." "And what will you do to me if I am bold enough to dare the awful peril of your anger?" laughed Geraldine. "Shall you shut me up in a walled tower, like the princesses of old, or land me on a desert island, inhabited only by seagulls and screaming eagles."

"Do not speak so, Geraldine; this is no jecting matter."

"Do not speak so, Geraidne; this is no jesting matter."

She pouted at his stern tone, and, almost for the first time in their married life, a slight, but very perceptible cloud darkened over the domestic horizon. Jonas Cleve thought that Geraldine was flippant, and Geraldine thought her husband unreasonable and cross.

How lovely the young danseuse looked the next night when she glided upon the stage in a dress of green and silver, with silver wings seeming to float over her head! How light her movements were, and instinct with the poetry of motion! Even Jones, accustomed as he was to the beautiful sight, felt his heart throb with rapid beats. How lovely the young danseuse looked the next night when she glided upon the stage in a dress of green and silver, with silver wings seeming to float over her head! How light her movements were, and instinct with the poetry of motion! Even Jonas, accustomed as he was to the beautiful sight, felt his heart throb with rapid beats.

A burst of applause rose up from the audience, with one accord, as she curtsied low at the end of her brilliant pas seul, and among the shower of flowers which fell all around her on the stage, a wreath of white rosebuds tied with snowy ribbon was the prettiest of all.

A pretty little actress, who stood leaning

DOINGS OF THE PLAYERS. HOW LANGTRY GOES SHOPPING.

No Nonsenso About Her and She Makes One New York Factory Said to Turn Out Friends With Saleswe

THE EVENING WORLD: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1887.

[From the Washington Post.] Mrs. Langtry's home life here is no mystery to her neighbors, and it is the key to her "wearing quality" in her success with women. Follow her on an afternoon's shopping tour and see if I am not right.

She enters a fashionable milliner's on Fifth avenue (she gets all her hats at one place). Her carriage, with the awfully pompous English coachman on the box, and the awfully siminutive but equally dignified and bebuttoned footman at the door, stands at the curb. The half-dozen women of fashion in the place giance round as she ap-pears. With perfect case she passes among them and to an attendant she says in a conversational

One:
 Tell Miss — that Mrs. Langiry is here, "Tell Miss — that Mrs. Langiry is here, picase."
This lady appears and is greeted with a cordiality almost like that of a sister. But no gush. Then the work of choosing two or three becoming hats begins. No impatience, no disgust, no hateur is visible. With a skill which is peculiarly her own she will succeed, be fore leaving the store, in getting the frank opinion of every lady present on each hat considered before making a decision.

This is all done in the most off-hand and polite manner possible, as though she should say:

on each hat considered before making a decision. This is all done in the most off-hand and pointe manner possible, as though she should say:

"Now, we are all here on common ground and know each other's weaknesses in the matter of personal adornment. Of course we are not acquainted, but it's all informal, don't you know—just like being on shipboard—so tell me the truth."

Of course this isn't what she says with her tongue, but with her manner. With a monosyllable appeal she draws out each, without apparently intending to do anything of the sort. Waen she has unlaned she sits comfortably down upon a founge and has a nice little five-minute conversation with the head of the concern.

Then with a smile she re-enters her carriage and is gone, and every ladge in the lace, including the employees, goes home and declares at dinner that Mrs. Langtry is the most charming woman she has ever met, despite the scandal-mongers.

And then, you know, each woman feels that she had a hand in the purchase of those hats, and she insists on going to the theatre the very next evening to see if Langtry wears one of them.

This programme and this effect are reproduced at the Lily's diressmaker's, at her shoemaker's and at all her shopping points—and nearly all her shopping is done in New York nowadays.

Her secret is this. She appreciates fully her own beauty and all that it is worth, and will freely discuss it in seeking garments which set it off; but this she does in such a confidential, yet frank manner as to disarm an enemy at one stroke.

nanner as to disarm an enemy at one stroke.

A Lover's Successful Stratagem (From the Americus (Gu.) Republican.]
A young countryman who had long loved a girl

the lived a mile or two from him was nearly in despair about winning her hand, and was on the eve of selling out and leaving the country, as the girl had refused him three times, and it was out that she was engaged to another fellow. Our hero nad noticed that his rival and the girl would walk in an old meadow field. Bearly every afternoon, and he grew madly jesious. In his eattle he had young built hat was always mad with everything and he grew medly jesious. In his cattle he had a young built hat was always mad with everyining but his master, because he was an especial pet. Now Dave, as ne called the buil, was to be the object with which to satisfy a revenge. He would turn him into the meadow, hide himself and see his rival tossed like a football. So, one afternoon, calling to Dave, who would follow him like a dog, he repaired to the meadow let the fence down and turned the built in. He then strolled off, and waiked around as miserable as a man could be who was committing an evil deed. An hour or so later he heard the deep mutterings of the buil and, hastening to the meadow fence, he saw Dave about twenty vards from the couple, pawing dirt and shaking his head. The man was trying to get the girl to run, but she was so terrined that she could not move. The bull made a dash and the fellow ran shrieking for the fence. The bull dashed on after the dlying fellow, while our disconsolate young man, having jumped the fence, rushed to the girl as the buil dashed on after the fugitive rival, and catching her in sits arms, told her that such a coward was unworthy of her. As Dave saw his young master he left off pursuing the other man, returned and went to ticking his hand, while the indignant girl vowed she would never more speak to a man that was afraid of a cow. She soon after married Dave's boss.

New York Women on Tricycles.

[From a New York Letter.]

A New York artist of repute has been spending October and the early November, days with his wife, touring on a tandem tricycle on Long siand, and the pair will not return to the city until the last of the bright autumn foliage has onth the last of the origin addumn foliage has faded. They have taken with them a sketch-book, water and oil colors each, and are making studies of 1 af finits for winter work in the studie. The tandem is an accommodating machine that doesn't complain against a hand-satchel swing ben-ath for a little hecesary luggage, and the country farm-houses have barns where the machine may be stored and beds where the lolly tourists may e stored and beds where the jolly tourists ma be stored and beds where the jolly tourists may steep.

The number of lady members of the cycling clubs is growing, and those institutions are plant-ing themselves everywhere along the parkside, where a woman may call, get her wheel, frandle it into the smooth parkways, enjoy an hour or two of exhilarating exercise and return it to cover again without a long journey over paved streets and joiling cobblestones.

Time's Revenge.

[From the Macon Telegraph.]
Forty years ago Wendell Phillips was mobbed in Boston. Last Tuesday night a public meeting was held in Boston to organize a movement for the erection of "a memorial building in commemoration of the life and public services of Wendeli Philips." In prosperity, bewarel in adversity, hope!

OTWITHSTANDING the constant demand for umbrellas, comparatively few people really know how they are made. The socalled umbrella manufacturer does little more than put the different ports of the um-- brella together. He buys the sticks, the caps, the ferrules and the steels ready made. The covering he buys by the piece, and it is the cutting and fitting of the covering which constitute his chief claim RESOLVENT, two boxes of the CUTICERA and two cakes to the title of manufacturer.

to the title of manufacturer.

The cloth is first hemmed; that is, the edges are bound usually with a thin silk cord. The cloth is then given to the cutter who separates it into triangular pieces. Much care is used in cutting the cloth, and for his guidance the cutter employes a triangular too! yery like a carpenter's compass, the size of which can be varied to suit the denominate of the about-to-be umbrella. The triangles of cloth are then sewed together by machin-ery and stretched over and tied upon the frame. The caps and ferules are fitted upon the sticks and the umbrella is then ready to protect unfortunate humanity from the dew brotect unfortunate humanity from the dewdrops of heaven or the drizzle of New York.

But, although nearly every one owns an umbrella, there are but few manufacturers in this country, and the majority of these are in New York and Philadelphia. There are about fifteen factories here, and nearly the same number in Philadelphia. One of those in this city is said to turn out ten those and in this city is said to turn out ten thousan pieces (umbrellas and parasols) daily Carlous Things in China Land. Boats are drawn by horses, carringes are moved Old women, instead of the young, are the belies of society.

Old men play ball and fly kites, while children fold their arms and look on. The highest recommendation a man can have the fact of his having a wife.

The highest ambition of a Chinese gentleman is to have a nice coffin and a fine funeral.

Parents and speciators, instead of children, are held responsible for the crimes committed by the held responsible for the crimes committed by the latter.

A bachelor is likened to a counterfeit coin, he is looked upon with suspicion even by members of his own nonsenoid.

To encourage nonesty and sincerity, confidential derks and saicsmen in all branches of industries receive an annual net percentage of the firm's business besides their regular sataries.

A itl is never considered anything else in her father's house than an honored guest. She is neither responsible for the lamily's deofs nor enjoys a share in its fortunes, as in case of soms.

A previous acquantanceship between the male neither responsible for the lamily's decis nor enjoys a share in its fortunes, as in case of sons.

A previous acquaintanceship between the male and femise prevents them from marriage. For this reason a man seldom weds a girl of his own town. They are likewise prevented from marrying kin or namesakes.

When a Chinaman desirea a visitor to dine with him he does not sak him to do so, but when he does not wish him to stay he puts the question, "Oh, please stay and dine with me!" The visitor will then know he is not wanted.

A man could borrow money on the strength of his having a ron, but none would advance him a cent if he had a dozen daughters. The former is responsible for the debts of his father for three generations. The latter is only responsible for the debts of her own husband.

A rich man's servant gets no salary, yet many are the applicants; while big salaries are paid to the servants of the common people, but few make applications. The fact that the perquisites of the former often more than triple the salaries of the latter, is the sole reason of these differences.

AMUSEMENTS.

H. R. JACOBS'S 3D AVE. THEATRE

CORNER SIST ST. AND SD AVE. Prices, 10c.; Reserved Seats, 20c. and 30c. HUNDREDS TURNED AWAY.
GEO. C. BOND AUGUS.
THE STRIKETS WAgne of Sin " Co.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

PIXLEY.
Reserved seate-Orchestra Circle and Balcony. 50c.
WEDNESDAY-MATINEES-SATURDAY.
ANNIE PIXLEY IN THE DEACON'S DAUGHTER.
Next week, FREDERICK WARD.
Next Sunday, PROF. CROMWELL'S new lecture,
PARIS, THE MAGNIFICENT CITY. PARIS, THE MAUNIFICANT CITY.

PLIOU OPERA-HOUSE—BURLESQUE,
BURLESQUE
THE CORNAIN.
COMPANY.
65 ARTISTS.

Eve's at 8 (sharp). Mat's Wed & Satat 2

EDEN MUSEE. New Groups, New Pictures, New Attractions.

Concerts Daily. Admission to all, 50c. DUNNELL'S OLD LONDON MUSEUM, 728, 730 BROADWAY. A million marveis. Submarine divers at work. Agtees: 3 singres: 10 hours performance. Admission, 25c.; children, 10c.

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. or the cinora-fondeli A. P. on one corner, containing money, papers and a commutation ticket on the Pennsylvania Railroad to Newark. The finder will be liberally rewarded by com-municating with T. B., bex 1,388 New York.

Eyes Ears Nose

Are all more or less affected by oatarrh. The eyes become inflamed, red and watery, with dull, heavy pain between them; there are rearing, burning mises in the ears and sometimes the hearing is affected; the nose is a severe sufferor, with its constant unconfortable discharge, bad breath and less of the sense of smell. All these disagreeable symptoms disappear when the discase is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which expels from the blood the impurity from which extern arises, tones and restores the diseased organs to health and builds up and restores the diseased organs to health and builds up

Constant Control of the Control of t

THE YOUNG HUSBAND TORE THE WREATH IN

TWAIN AND SET HIS HEEL ON IT.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for cetarrh with very satisfactory results. I received more permanent benefit from it than from any other remedy." M. E.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 DOSES ONE BOLLAR

Geraldine did not answer; she was busy tying on her veil. Jonas picked it up and examined the card fastened to it.
"Duncan Middleworth."
As quick as lightning the young husband tore the wreath in twain, threw it on the floor, and set his heel on it.
"Jonas!" Geraldine cried, half angry, half trightened. No. frightened.
"I told you I would have no more of such nonsense," he said in a voice almost suffocated with rage. "If you ever accept so much as a bud that comes from his hand

But his whole voice and manner had changed.

"Are you ready to go home?" he asked quietly. "Because it is growing late."

But Geraldine could not forget the white heat of anger that had blazed in his brief glance.

"It's too absurd," she thought, "I will not give way to his unreasoning jealousy."
Mr. Duncan Middleworth sat in a proscenium box the next evening, and tossed an exquisite basket of japonicas at Geraldine Cleve's feet when the moment of ovation came.

She stooped herself to pick it up, with an arch gratified smile, and a slight motion of her head towards the box, and as she turned awa; she met her husband's stern, reproachful eye.

Her first impulse was to drop the basket

Her first impulse was to drop the basket again, her second to brave it out.

"What have I done?" she asked herself half indignantly, and as she went off the stage she carried the flower-basket in her hand.

Jonas Cleve, however, did not make his appearance as usual in her dressing-room when she was ready to depart, but, instead, and departs of the stage an old one-eyed carpenter, who served about the theatre, stood waiting. "Where's Mr. Cleve, Griffith?" "He said I was to see you home, ma'am," "But where is he?"

UMBRELLAS FOR ALL THE WORLD. Have You a Humor of Skin or Blood ?

IF SO, THE CUTICURA REMEDIES WILL CURE YOU.

I was induced, after all other remedies had falled, to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES on my boy, four years of age, who had running sores from his thighs to the ends of his toss. The nails fell off. His arms and face were size covered, and he was a herrible sight. The CUTICUMA and CUTICUMA SOAP were all that I used. Two days after their use we could see a change for the better, and in six weeks the child was perfectly well.

I was then induced to try them further, as my wife had what we termed dry scale tetter, or pacriasis, for nearly fifteen years; and I tried everything I could get hold o of Curicula Soar, and in one week from the time she began their use I could see a change for the better. It is now nearly one year since she stopped using the CUTI-CURA RESERVER, and there is no return. I pronounce her entirely cured. No one, only these who have had the disease and those who are constantly about diseased patients, can realize the fortune in which they are pieced.

patients, can realize the torture in which they are placed.

I have recommended the CUTTICURA REMINDERS to all when I have not that were in any way in need of a skin cure. One man to whom I had recommended them had suffered for over levely years, and in that time spent nearly five bundred dellars to be cured; but nothing helped, and new, after the use of five bottles of the CUTTICURA RESULVENT and several bases of CUTTICURA, and two cakes of CUTTICURA SOAP, rejuices in having found a cure. I have others at present under treatment, and with gad prespects. In no case, to my knowledge, have the CUTTICURA RESULDIES failed.

I take pleasure in sending this to jost, trusting that it may prove a blessing to you and to the suffering.

Kimball, Brule Co., Daketz.

CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, An exquisite Skin Resultiler externally, and CUTICURA BESOLVENT, the new Hood Purchely internally, are a positive cure for every form of Skin and Blood Disease, to a Pinpies to Scratila.

Sollow-rywhere. Prim: CUTICURA, 50c.; SOAP, 25c.; RESULVENT, 21. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CRASTOLL U.G., Boston, Mass., 27 Sand for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations and 100 testimonials.

TINTED with the loveliest delicacy is the skin preserved with Curroura Manual Posses.

NEW YORK HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY'S GRAND EXHIBITION OF CHRYSANTHEMUMS,

AMUSEMENTS.

ORCHIDS, ROSES, PALMS, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY from AT MASONIC TEMPLE

20d st. and 6th ave.
ADMISSION, FIFTY CENTS. ...Mr. John Stetson

ADMISSION, PIFTY CENTS.

PIFTH AVENUE THEATHE.

Proprietor and Manager.

Positively last night of

"MIL". DE BUESSIFE."

COMMENCING THURSDAY NOV. 10.

MRS. POTTER

In the first American production of

Supported by MR. KYRLE BELLEW

(By courtesy of Mr. H. E. Abbey, of Wallack's)

and the young American Star

MR. JOSEPH HAWORTH,

POSITIVELY NO ADVANCE IN PRICES.

POSITIVELY NO ADVANCE IN PRICES.

STAR THEATRE.

Lessees and Managers. Abbey, Schoeffel & Gran
TO-NIGHT. AT 8 O'CLOCK.
MR. HENRY IRVING.
MISS ELLEN TERRY
AND THE LYCEUM COMPANY.

MEPHISTOPHELES. MR. HENRY IRVING
MARGARET.
MATTINEE FAUST SATURDAY
SATURDAY NIGHT, 12TH NOVEMBER,
"THE RELLS" AND "JIN", LE."
SATURDAY NIGHT, 10TH NOVEMBER,
"THE RELLS" AND "JIN", LE."

SATURDAY NIGHT, 10TH NOVEMBER,
"LOUIS XI."

Doors open at 7.30. Commences at 8.

DOCKSTADER'S. "FLEUTION BAY,"
or FUN AT THE POLLS,
"MLLE. DE BRY AM EAR."
The Musical Kings,
WOOD, BRYANT AND SHEPPARD,
GREAT FIRST PART,
Matines Saturday, 2.30,
MONDAY — FAUST.

HARRIGAN'S PARK THEATRE.
M. W. HANLEY
CORDELIA'S ASPIRATIONS EDWARD HARRIGAN

In his great character, DAN MULLIGAN, DAVE BRAHAM and his popular orchestra, WEDNESDAY—MATINKE—SATURDAY, Lock out for PETE.

Union square theatre.

J. M. HILL
SEVENTH WEEK CONTINUED SUCCESS,
THE COMEDIANS,
THE COMEDIANS ROBSON AND CRANE,

THE HENRIETTA.

50th performance, Monday, Nov. 14. Elaborate MADISON SQUARE THEATRE.

Mr. A. M. PALMER......Sole Manager
Bogins at 8.30. Saturday Matines at 2.

Last Two Performances of JIM THE PENMAN. Thursday evening, Nov. 19, will be produced a new ple by the author of THE TWO ORPHANS, entitled: THE MARTYR.

14TH STREET THEATRE, COR. 6TH AVE.
Matiness Wednessley and Saturday.
THIRD WEEK AND LAST BUT ONE OF
CEO. S. KNICHT
In Bronson Howard's and David Belesco's new pla

In Bronson Howard's and David Belasco's new play,

RUDOLPH.

Gallery, 25c.; Reserved, 35c., 50c., 70c., $1 and $1.50.

LYCKUM THEATICE.

Stray ovening at 8.15, and Saturday Matines.

THE WIFE Measure. Kelocy, Miller, Le Moyne,
THE WIFE Walsot, Wheateroft, Inteksni; Missea

THE WIFE Cayvan, Henderson, Dillon, &c., &c. WALLACK'S.
ROBERTSON'S BEAUTIFUL COMEDY.

CASTE. D. Ward, Chas. Groves, T. W. Robertson,
Abboy. Evenings at 8, 15. Matine Saturday, 2, 15.

A CADEMY OF MUSIC. EIGHTH WEEK.

EVENINGS AT 8, MATINEE SATURDAY AT 2.
The Phage-menally Successful Maloderma. The Phenomenally Successful Melodrima, A UARK ~ECH+T. RESERVED SEATS, 50c., 75c. and $1.

MONY PASTOR'S THEATRE. TONY PASTOR AND NEW SHOW.

"Please, ma'am, I don't know."
Geraldine asked no more questions, but she bit her scarlet lip until the blood came.
"He is angry about the flower-basket," she thought. "Well, let him sulk!"
But Jonas was not at home when she reached their modest lodgings, and Geraldine was surprised at the sudden sinking of her own heart.

As she took the basket of japonicas out of its tissue-paper wrappings, something glittered in the gaslight. It was a diamond ring, fastened to the handle.

"This will never do," said Geraldine, half glad that her husband was not there to see the shining gaud. "I next send it back to morrow. Jonas was right after all. I will receive up more dowers from Dunean Mid-receive no more flowers from Duncan Mid-receive no more flowers from Duncan Middleworth."

And then she sat down, all in her silvery and tissue robes, to wait patiently for her husband's return.

But he did not come. The clock struck twelve—one—two—and still no familiar footstep sounded on the stairs.

And then an awful doubt crept into her mind. She had set his will and wishes at defiance! Had he left her forever?

It was only during an instant that she harbored the possibility, but that one second made her heart cold as ice.

And when the next day's sun dawned,
lurid and enerless, and she still sat alone, cowering over the smouldering fire, she would have given half a lifetime to be able to live over the last evening once more.

would have given half a lifetime to be able to live over the last evening once more.

"Why did I touch the basket," she asked herself, passionately, "when he wished me not? Oh, surely I have deserved this anguish, this terrible doubt, for pandering to my own base vanity. If he would only come back again, but"—

She dared not say to herself, "If he should never come back!"

The day crept by, and she still sat huddled

"He escorted in a home, but he never spoke about a letter," said Geraldine, bursting into tears.

"The old villain! But I hope you were not uneasy, dearest?"

"Oh, Jonas, I was miserable. I—I feared you had ceased to love me!" sobbed the young wife.

"As if that were possible, darling!"

But Geraldine had received a lesson, nevertheless—a lesson which she remembered.

See that the above Trade Mark is on all packages. Refuse any other.

RIKER'S EXPECTORANT

One bottle Warranted to cure any Cough or Cold or your money is returned.

COUGGIS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGHS, PAINS IN CHEST, PLAURISY, DIFFICULTY IN SERATH-ING. BRONCHTIS AND ALL INFLAMMATORY DISEASES OF THE PULMONARY ORGANS. If taken as soon as you feel that irritation or dryness of the throat occasioned by a cold, four to six does will cure.

AT LEAST MAKE THE TRIAL.

60 CENTS.

INSIST ON HAVING Riker's Expectorant

Do not allow any one to persuade you otherwise. Select almost all dealers throughout the United States prices no higher than at our Retail Establishment in at prices no higher than at our Retail Establishment in New York. If ANY druggist refuses to supply you, you can be SURE of getting what you sak for at the dry-goods houses and general stores, or direct

WM. B. RIKER & SON

DRUGGISTS AND MANUPACTURING CHEMISTS,
ESTABLISHED 1846.
AT 358 GTH AVE. NEW YORK.
LABORATORIES,
685 Washington street, and
56, 57 and 56 Clarkes street, N. Y.

The National Automatic Gas Governor.

Gas Bills GUARANTEED.

Enormous gas bills result from excessive gas pressure. When gas "blows" at the burner, it is being wasted pro rata. The higher the pressure, the least the lilumination and the larger the gas bill.

The antomatic action of tiovernor, attached to each insividual actor, permits the consumer fo control his own pressure regardless of the liast ompany, at dobligates him to pay for only the min mum supply of Gas required for economic service.

Secures a teady and increased illumination, resulting from regular pressure and consequent perfect combustion of the games, thus insuring a pure and healthful atmosphere. Prevents the diagreeable whatfig, howing and smoking of burners, and or equest injury to collings, paintings or drase. Greatly reduces "Fire Insurance Risks" incident to "Streaming" Gas Jets and Raysor, and avoids the frequent danger and oxponse of broken globes.

The Governor coats consumer practically nothing, as the sarving in Gas Bills (where full mothing, as the sarving in Gas Bills (where full

The Governor costs consumer practically nothing, as the saving in Gas Bills (where full capacity of meter is used) will rebate cost of Governor in every three or four mouths' service, and in large buildings every sixty days thus returning from 200 to 600 per cost, as and dividends upon the investment for cost of machine), Over 10,000 in service. Every machine warranted.

744 BROADWAY.

NEW YORK.

AMUSEMENTS. CASINO, BROADWAY AND SUTH ST.

Why, what's the matter?"

shrick The sudden revulsion of feeling shrick. The sudden revulsion of feeling was too great a shock.

"I have torn it all to pieces, Jonas. I never want to see it again," she cried.

"Torn what to pieces? I don't understand you, child."

"The horrid, edious basket of Japonicas?"

"Oh, I remember now, my darling," with a tender pressure of the hand. "How shall I thank you for your regard for my wishes!"

"But, Jonas, why did you leave me without a word?" she asked breathlessly.

"Didn't Griffith give you the letter?"

"Your letter? No."

"Then he was half-drunk, as usual, I suppose. I was telegraphed from Albany, by my

A Pleasant, Swift and Sure Cure for of the throat occasioned by a cold, four to six goess wis-cure.

UNLIKE the majority of Cough Preparations, our Expectorant WILL NOT CURE CONSUMPTION but we have heard from MANY cases of a PERFECT cure, where the disease had been PRONOUNGED Con-sumption by Physicians, and the patients ASSURED that their ONLY HOPK of a FEW years more of LEP was a continued residence in the far South.

As a trai of this TRULY WONDERFUL medicine COSTS NOTHING, and as 30 cases out of every 100 WILL BK CURED, it is we'l worth the while of all sufferers from Palmonary trouble to Price per bottle, containing a half pint (enough to core eight people if taken in time),

And you are positively sure of Cure.

Descriptive Catalogue and Price List mailed free a

Exclusive City or State Agencies Awarded. The Union National Gas Saving Co.,

renings at 8. Matinee Saturday a The sperkling Comic Opera THE MARQUIS Received with roars of laughter.

up in a heap, pallid and sick at heart, with no energy for anything. She had sent back the diamond ring promptly, as an insult which she would not for a moment brook. But, alas! it was too late now.

For Geraldine was gradually becoming assured that her own folly had forfeited her a husband's love, and she cared for naught elso in life.

She sprang into his arms with an hysterical

"Then he was half-drunk, as usual, I suppose. I was telegraphed from Albany, by my employer, to bring him up some valuable papers from the office, and had to take the midnight train without an instant's delay. I had no time to see you, but I sent you a line by Griffith with directions to see you home."

"He escorted me home, but he never spoke about a letter," said Geraldine, bursting into tears.

her own heart.
"He will be home soon," she comforted nerself by saying.
As she took the basket of japonicas out of tall figure entered.